

18th Salos Summer School of Linguistics
Academia Grammaticorum Salensis Duodevigesima
 Salos Manor, Rokiškis Municipality, July 26–July 30, 2021

Preliminary programme

The programme of the Salos event consists of two parts: the Summer School and the project-related conference Further Perspectives on the Baltic Verb. In the programme below they are differentiated by colour.

As this is a rough schedule, no exact timing for lectures, coffee breaks and lunch breaks is given. The duration of every talk is 90 minutes, including questions and discussion. If this time is not used up, the remaining time is added to the coffee or lunch break.

Changes in the arrangement of lectures and talks are possible.

Monday 26	Tuesday 27	Wednesday 28	Thursday 29	Friday 30
Morning session
Walter Bisang Approaches to grammaticalization—between meaning first and coevolution of meaning and form	Simone Mattioli Pluractionality. A cross-linguistic perspective	Simone Mattioli Where we are at with reduplication. Some theoretical issues	Matti Miestamo Linguistic diversity and language complexity	Matti Miestamo Approaching the functional domain of negation: Typological and descriptive perspectives. II
Simone Mattioli Typology, discourse and methods: Towards a discourse-oriented typology	Walter Bisang A quantitative assessment of grammaticalization—the Mainz grammaticalization project	Bernhard Wälchli Can genealogical relationship be established by comparing irregularities in grammar? A case from New Guinea.	Kirill Kozhanov Verbal modifiers in contact. A study of parallel Latvian and Latvian Romani texts	Axel Holvoet, Anna Daugavet, Liina Lindström & Asta Laugalienė Irrealis types in Baltic and Baltic Fennic
Afternoon session
Bernhard Wälchli Three types of aboutness. A parallel text approach to typology	Anna Daugavet & Peter Arkadievs What is left behind the scenes: Non-trivial uses of the Latvian perfect	Vladimir Panov Aspect in Lithuanian imperatival forms in an areal-typological context	Matti Miestamo Approaching the functional domain of negation: Typological and descriptive perspectives. I	Birutė Spraunienė & Paweł Brudzyński The history of the Lithuanian passive perfect
Nicole Nau & Birutė Spraunienė. A narrative future in Baltic?	Daria Alfimova Clustering of coding patterns in the Circum-Baltic area	Axel Holvoet, Anna Daugavet & Vaiva Žeimantienė The perfective present in Lithuanian	Axel Holvoet & Gina Kavaliūnaitė The Lithuanian mirative present and its history	Axel Holvoet The Baltic Verb Project: Summing up
Opening of the Summer school Performance by Kaunas String Quartet			Performance by Chris Ruebens and his ensemble	